Golden Nugget from His Word

The Deadly Folly of Sexual Sin

Pro 7:6 For I was at the window of my house, glancing out through the lattice,

Pro 7:7 when I saw among the young men there, among those who don't think for themselves, a young fellow devoid of all sense.

Pro 7:8 He crosses the street near her corner and continues on toward her house.

Pro 7:9 Dusk turns into evening, and finally night, dark and black.

Pro 7:10 Then a woman approaches him, dressed as a prostitute, wily of heart.

Pro 7:11 She's the coarse, impulsive type, whose feet don't stay at home;

Pro 7:12 rather, she stalks the streets and squares, lurking at every streetcorner.

Pro 7:13 She grabs him, gives him a kiss, and, brazen-faced, she says to him,

Pro 7:14 "I had to offer peace sacrifices, and I fulfilled my vows today.

Pro 7:15 This is why I came out to meet you, to look for you; now I've found you.

Pro 7:16 I've spread quilts on my couch made of colored Egyptian linen.

Pro 7:17 I've perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.

Pro 7:18 Come on, let's make love till morning; we'll enjoy making love.

Pro 7:19 My husband isn't at home, he's gone on a long trip;

Pro 7:20 he took a bag of money with him and won't be back till the moon is full."

Pro 7:21 With all her sweet talk she convinces him, enticing him with her seductive words.

Pro 7:22 At once he follows her like an ox on its way to be slaughtered; like a fool to be punished in the stocks;

Pro 7:23 or like a bird rushing into a trap, not knowing its life is at stake till an arrow pierces its liver. CJB
