It is important to understand the Righteousness of YHWH and what He expects of those He has redeemed. It is because of what Yeshua did for us, that we can stand as 'righteous' in God's eyes. Because He has made us righteous in Messiah Yeshua, we are to walk as His righteous people.

The proper name of the eighteenth letter of the Alpeh-Beis is tzaddi, but it is commonly called tsaddik. The letter symbolizes the righteousness of God and devout human beings-another reason for the tzaddik pronunciation.¹

The letter Tsade (or Tzadi) is the 18th letter of the Hebrew Aleph-Bet, having the numeric value of 90.

- The Righteous One, refers to the Almighty, Who is called The Righteous and Upright One. Devoid of every conceivable injustice. No other being can have an essence so pure that it is without deficiency and cannot become further perfected.
- Deu 32:4 He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Similarly, King Solomon's description, The Tsaddik is the foundation of the world alludes to God, Who sustains the entire world

- Pro 10:25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
- Oslos R. Akiva explains that tsaddik symbolizes God's ultimate righteousness toward people, which is defined as His gift of knowledge, understanding, and the power of intelligent speech, through which the world can endure.
- The term tsaddik is also applied to human beings who emulate God's righteousness by conducting themselves with integrity, truth and justice. Just as the Supreme Tsaddik allots every element of creation its due measure of time, space and matter, so does the human tsaddik render his fellowmen all their due in each situation. Such a man's life is an unending pattern of justice, unbiased by his personal interests. He views everything objectively in accordance with the Torah's dictum. (Deut. 16:20) justice, justice, shall you pursue.
- The Divine Tsaddik sustains and protects the world; through his merits the human tsaddik, too, sustains and protects the world. Noah who started the world anew, after the Flood is called tsaddik (Gen. 6:9), Abraham is described as the 'foremost of all tsaddikim because he taught, mankind the idea of the Creator, thus providing spiritual sustenance, which ranks higher than the physical. Joseph is called 'the tsaddik, the foundation of the world, because he nourished the populations of many lands during the great famine. He also earned appellation of tsaddik by virtue of his moral strength in resisting the temptations of Potiphar's wife.
- Just as the angels are God's messengers in heaven, so are tsaddikim his ambassadors on earth. But a tsaddik is even greater than an angel for an angel carries out his Master's will automatically, but a tsaddik serves God of his own free choice.
